FACTUAL CHARGES

15. On December 1, 2016 at approximately 6:10A.M., Ms. Pesantes was inside of 1141 Tiffany Street, 5B in the County of Bronx, State of New York.

16. On said date, time and location, Ms. Pesantes was a legal resident of 1141 Tiffany Street, 5B, Bronx, New York.

17. On said date, time and location, defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, illegally entered the above mentioned apartment.

18. On said date, time and location, defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, illegally searched the said location.

19. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, did not have arrest warrants for Ms. Pesantes.

20. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, did not provide full and truthful facts, regarding the likely presence of illicit drugs, firearms or other illegal contraband, to the District Attorney's Office or the Presiding Judge to justify the issuing of a valid search warrant.

21. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello and Bowman, Valentin, intentionally provided said false or fabricated information that would be likely to influence a jury's decision to prosecutors employed by the District Attorney's Office, namely that Ms. Pesantes was observed to be exhibiting dominion and control over 206 glassines of heroin, 5 zips of cocaine, 1 zip of heroin and $40,614 in United States Currency, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Ms. Pesantes.

22. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, fabricated the fact that said illicit items were recovered at all or fabricated the locations where said items were recovered, so that they could falsely implicate Ms. Pesantes of various crimes that defendants knew her to be innocent of.

23. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, entered said location with the intentions of finding any contraband or possession of a controlled substance on Ms. Pesantes but however, failed to find anything illegal on her person or her reach.

24. Ms. Pesantes was not in actual, constructive, or statutory possession of contraband, including cocaine and heroin, and had not committed any crime or violation of the law.

25. Ms. Pesantes had multiple assaults and batteries, committed to her person, by defendants including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, including but not limited to, being placed in handcuffs too tightly.

26. Defendant Gugliucciello falsely claimed he recovered heroin from an eyeglass container, a white paper bag, a multi-colored pouch inside a cabinet in the kitchen, despite being fully aware that no such event or occurrence ever transpired in reality.

27. At no time did Ms. Pesantes possess any heroin inside eyeglass container, white paper bag, or multi-colored pouch containing heroin.

28. As a result of Defendants' including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, knowingly and intentionally made false statements and allegations, Ms. Pesantes was falsely arrested and charged with possession of controlled substances that Defendants falsely claimed was in criminal possession of Ms. Pesantes.

29. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, were fully aware that Ms. Pesantes did not have any heroin on her person or in her possession, but Defendant Bowman knowingly and intentionally decided to fabricate said observation to justify an otherwise invalid arrest and to ensure that Plaintiff was maliciously prosecute and ultimately convicted.

30. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, arrested and initiated a criminal prosecution against plaintiff, not because defendants believed plaintiff to be guilty of any crime or violation of the law, but because of their desire to compel Mr. Elvis Peralta, who was their true target and suspect, to plead guilty, in retribution for his prior successful lawsuit against defendant Valentin.

31. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, ensured Mr. Peralta's cooperation by fabricating false evidence against plaintiff, namely that she was observed to be in possession of large quantities of illicit narcotics and controlled substances.

32. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, further ensured that plaintiff would be falsely inculpated by fabricating the locations in which the illicit narcotics were discovered.

33. Plaintiff was rear handcuffed by defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, and placed in a NYPD vehicle to be transported to NYPD 41st precinct.

34. Upon arrival at said location or while plaintiff remained detained at the NYPD precinct, she was illegally searched, including a strip-search with cavity inspection, questioned, photographed and fingerprinted by, or at the direction of Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin.

35. Defendant Castillo was Ms. Pesantes's arresting officer and signed his criminal court complaint under Arrest #B16666635 and Criminal Docket #2016NY070316, knowingly and falsely accusing Ms. Pesantes of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the third degree and Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the fourth degree and other related charges, all of which Defendant Castillo knew to be untrue.

36. Defendant Valentin directly participated in and/or directed that the unfounded criminal investigation proceed against Ms. Pesantes take place, so that he could exact retribution upon Mr. Elvis Peralta for his prior successful civil lawsuit against him and which contributed to the disciplinary action levied against him, as well as his forced and involuntary assignment to the Manhattan Criminal Court Section, a well know depository for unfit NYPD officers and detectives, such as Defendant Valentin.

37. Ms. Pesantes was arraigned and formally charged with two (2) count of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the third degree and one (1) count Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the fourth degree.

38. At no point did the defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello and Bowman, Valentin, ever observe Ms. Pesantes possessed heroin or any other controlled substance on contraband.

39. At no point were the defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, ever told by any witnesses that Ms. Pesantes committed any crime or violation of the law.

40. After his arraignment, Ms. Pesantes was transferred to Rikers Island Correctional Facility, where she was unlawfully detained until her eventual release on, or about, May 7, 2018.

41. Ms. Pesantes was compelled to return to court, multiple times, to contest the false charges levied against her, including Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the third degree and Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the fourth degree and Resisting Arrest.

42. On August 2, 2018, all charges against Ms. Pesantes were unconditionally dismissed by Hon. J. Hanshaft, pursuant to CPL § 160.50, representing a termination of the criminal charges in Ms. Pesantes' favor.

43. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin did not possess a valid, judicially authorized arrest warrant for Ms. Pesantes.

44. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman, and Valentin did not possess probable cause or other justification for the arrest or seizure of Ms. Pesantes' person.

45. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as defendants were fully aware that any evidence against Plaintiff was either fraudulent or fabricated, including the observation provided by defendant Bowman, in which Ms. Pesantes falsely accused of possessing heroin contained in an eyeglass container, a white paper bag, a multi-colored pouch inside a cabiner in the kitchen of said location.

46. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the third degree and Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the fourth degree.

47. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, intentionally, knowingly and falsely made said allegations to conceal their otherwise illegal, tortious and sinister acts, namely entering a residence illegally without a search warrant, arresting an individual without probable cause.

48. Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the fabrication of false evidence and the gratuitous use of excessive force against plaintiff.

49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman, Valentin and John or Jane Does 1-10, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause or using excessive force to effectuate his arrest.

50. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman, Valentin and John or Jane Does 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's wrongful arrest and subsequent malicious criminal prosecution.

51. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman, Valentin and John or Jane Does 1-10, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact their police officers.

52. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD, and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

53. In a report by NBC Channel 4 News, New York, entitled “Ex NYPD Sergeant Accused of Assaulting Man at Homeless Shelter, Stomping on His Head More Than 10 Times,” by Jonathan Dienst and Joe Valiquette, horrific allegations against a former NYPD police sergeant were detailed, including his use of extreme and excessive force, as well as his falsifying evidence that was forwarded to prosecutors. The former NYPD sergeant is no longer by NYPD and his criminal case is presently being prosecuted by the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York. Another article from citylimits.org, entitled “CityViews: Is NYPD Oversight Really making Homeless Shelters Safer,” by Daniel Castillo, discusses how the NYPD police officers have begun to jointly enforce the law within many homeless shelters, but how such added policing has only worsened the already crime riddled areas. It also details how ongoing problems have only deteriorated since the newly enacted joint jurisdiction.

54. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses.. Also detailed, is the NYPD’s obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

55. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

56. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

57. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

58. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

59. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

61. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

62. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

63. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and City of New York.

64. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

65. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City, and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD, and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman, Valentin and John or Jane Does 1-10.

66. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, including the City, Castillo, Gugliucciello, Bowman and Valentin, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
