VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff SHAVON ARIAS, by her attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for her Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On July 21, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plaintiff Shavon Arias, while lawfully in the vicinity of 815 East Tremont Avenue, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, and battery by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and her constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Shavon Arias is a resident of the state of New York.
2. NYPD Police Officer Konti Markvukaj is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
3. NYPD Police Officer Konti Markvukaj is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Konti Markvukaj was assigned to NBBX of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One through ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One through ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
7. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
9. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
10. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on January 15, 2022.
11. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On July 21, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of 815 East Tremont Avenue, County of Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
15. Plaintiff was about to enter a store to purchase sneakers for her son when she stopped to take a prescription medication.
16. Plaintiff, without warning or reason, was suddenly approached by eight to nine people in plain clothes.
17. None of the people who grabbed Plaintiff were in uniform nor did they announce themselves as police officers.
18. Plaintiff was grabbed, hands placed behind her back, and handcuffed.
19. Upon information and belief, one Defendant Officer was an African American named Alex.
20. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of her assailants told her what she was being arrested for, or where she was being taken.
21. Plaintiff pleaded to be read her rights but was ignored by Defendant Officers.
22. Plaintiff was placed in a vehicle and transported to, upon information and belief, the 48th precinct.
23. Plaintiff was placed in a cell at the 48th Precinct where she remained for approximately 13 hours before being released with a desk appearance ticket.
24. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
25. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance, Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance in or Near School Grounds, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Seventh Degree, and Criminal Diversion of Prescription Medications and Prescriptions.
26. Upon being released, Plaintiff still did not know why she was arrested.
27. Plaintiff was not informed about the reason for her arrest until she appeared in court for the first time.
28.  On October 13, 2021, Plaintiff's criminal case was ordered to be dismissed and sealed..

29. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
30. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
31. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained.
32. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

33. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
34. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
35. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
36. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.
37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
38. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

39. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

40. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
41. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

42. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
43. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
44. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
45. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
46. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
47. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

48. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
49. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

50. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

51. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

52. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

53. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

54. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

55. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

56. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

57. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

59. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

61. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

62. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

63. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
64. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of her constitutional rights.
65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
66. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Malicious Prosecution

68. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
69. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
70. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
71. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
72. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

73. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

74. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
75. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
76. The Defendant Officers unlawfully seized Plaintiff and detained plaintiff and further causing her detention for approximately 13 hours in total.
77. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff was otherwise damaged and injured.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

78. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
79. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
80. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
81. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable seizure had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
82. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of her rights.
83. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff was otherwise damaged and injured.
