Case Summary

On January 4, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via email. During her in-person interview on January 18, 2019, § 87(2)(b) added allegations for January 5, 2019, in connection with the original complaint.

On January 3, 2019, § 87(2)(b) stood in line on the sidewalk outside of Masbia Soup Kitchen of Queens, when she grew impatient and tried to get to the front of the line. Other patrons of the Soup Kitchen told § 87(2)(b) that she could not skip them, and § 87(2)(b) a volunteer, told § 87(2)(b) to step back. § 87(2)(b) and the other patrons got into a physical altercation. § 87(2)(b) held § 87(2)(b) in a bear-hug, sitting on the sidewalk, while others called the police. Several officers arrived at the scene and circled around § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) released § 87(2)(b) who then remained seated on the sidewalk with her phone in her hands.

PO Myungdeuk Lee of the 112th Precinct told § 87(2)(b) to, “Stop fucking taking pictures of me...I’m going to fucking arrest you,” (Allegation A: Discourtesy, Unfounded; Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, Unfounded; Allegation C: Abuse of Authority, Unfounded). PO Alexander Pilkington, also of the 112th Precinct, told § 87(2)(b) to stop taking pictures, adding that he was going to, “Fucking arrest you for taking pictures,” (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority, Unsubstantiated; Allegation E: Discourtesy, Unfounded; Allegation F: Abuse of Authority: Unfounded). A Forest Hills Volunteer Ambulance Corps ambulance arrived with EMT § 87(2)(b) to remove § 87(2)(b) to the hospital, and she complied. PO David Pierson, of the 112th Precinct, escorted § 87(2)(b) to the ambulance by guiding her arm. § 87(2)(b) complained that his grip hurt her, to which PO Pierson replied, “Shut the fuck up...if you don’t fucking comply, I’m going to have to fucking arrest you,” (Allegation G: Discourtesy, Unfounded; Allegation H: Abuse of Authority, Unfounded). § 87(2)(b) was taken to the hospital, but left it of her own accord.

On January 5, 2019, § 87(2)(b) went to the 108th Precinct stationhouse to file a complaint against § 87(2)(b) for assault. § 87(2)(b) waited for several hours. Finally, she attempted to call the hospital emergency department to speak to an officer at the desk of the 108th Precinct. An officer told § 87(2)(b) “I don’t want to fucking speak to her,” (Allegation I: Discourtesy, Officer Unidentified). Before leaving the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) asked the officer if she could have his name, and he responded, “I told you to be quiet,” (Allegation J: Abuse of Authority, Officer Unidentified).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Discourtesy: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Myungdeuk Lee spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Myungdeuk Lee interfered with § 87(2)(b)’s use of a recording device.

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Myungdeuk Lee threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Alexander Pilkington interfered with § 87(2)(b)’s use of a recording device.

Allegation (E) Discourtesy: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Alexander Pilkington spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO Alexander Pilkington threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

In her in-person CCRB interview on January 19, 2019 (01 Board Review), § 87(2)(b) stated that on January 3, 2019, as she waited in-line outside of Masbia Soup Kitchen of Queens, she tried to call her father to come pick her up from the location with the food that she would eventually receive. § 87(2)(b) was hungry and her back hurt as she stood in line. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) approached § 87(2)(b) and chewed soup in her face, telling her to, “Get the fuck out of here.” § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) that it was a public street, that she was allowed to stand anywhere she wanted, and that he had not asked the other people in line to leave, therefore she could stay. § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) continued to chew the soup in her face, and when § 87(2)(b) asked him to stop, § 87(2)(b) then spit the soup onto her, burning her face, jacket, and shoes. § 87(2)(b) threw § 87(2)(b) to the floor and put her in a headlock. § 87(2)(b) tried to grab her phone to call for help, but an elderly Puerto Rican woman walked up and started to kick § 87(2)(b) and take her phone.

After what seemed to be an hour and a half, officers arrived on the scene. Six police officers walked up to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). He released her and walked over to the officers, speaking with them privately. § 87(2)(b) was crying on the ground, while people told her to stop taking pictures. She saw two plainclothes officers speak with § 87(2)(b) while PO Myungdeuk Lee and PO Pilkington stood by § 87(2)(b).

While § 87(2)(b) was taking pictures of PO Lee, he told her, “Stop taking fucking pictures of me.” § 87(2)(b) stated that she recognized PO Lee, but he replied, “Who the fuck are you? I’m going to fucking arrest you.” § 87(2)(b) then continued to sit on the sidewalk, awaiting the ambulance.

In his CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that he was working during the incident (02 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) was called outside by the other workers in the kitchen to attend to § 87(2)(b) who was trying to skip the line. § 87(2)(b) had dealt with § 87(2)(b) before and knew her to cause trouble at the kitchen. § 87(2)(b) told her that she would have to get to the back of the line, causing her to curse at § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stood near the line and cursed at all the volunteers and the other patrons. § 87(2)(b) went back inside to prepare to serve the food. However, he was called back outside due to the situation escalating. When § 87(2)(b) walked outside, he saw § 87(2)(b) holding § 87(2)(b) on the ground.

§ 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) to be careful because § 87(2)(b) could be hurt. § 87(2)(b) was screaming and cursing at everyone present. After approximately two minutes, police officers arrived at the scene. The officers stood in a circle around § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). The officers told § 87(2)(b) to release § 87(2)(b). He did, and she scratched his face. The officers spoke with § 87(2)(b) and a few other volunteers, but not § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) was yelling and cursing at people while sitting on the ground surrounded by the officers. The officers appeared calm and did not yell at § 87(2)(b). No officer touched § 87(2)(b) nor did any officer curse at § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) did not recall any specific things said between § 87(2)(b) and the officers. § 87(2)(b) never saw § 87(2)(b) placed in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) never heard anyone mention arresting § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) complained that a volunteer had attacked her, and § 87(2)(b) complained to the police officers that § 87(2)(b) had attacked him first.

Once the situation seemed under control, § 87(2)(b) went back inside of Masbia Kitchen. He did not see an ambulance arrive.

In his CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that he was present for the incident (03 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) was alerted to § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) causing an issue outside of the kitchen and went outside to check on the situation. § 87(2)(b) saw § 87(2)(b) grabbing items from the bags of other patrons. § 87(2)(b) attempted to stop her, but § 87(2)(b) scratched and punched § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) then hugged § 87(2)(b) from behind to stop her attacks. § 87(2)(b) continued to punch and scratch at § 87(2)(b)'s face, causing them to fall to the ground. § 87(2)(b) went inside to call the police, but was informed that a woman had already called.

The police arrived shortly after § 87(2)(b) went inside. When he walked back outside, the police had formed a circle around § 87(2)(b) and were speaking with § 87(2)(b). An officer also spoke with § 87(2)(b) who explained that § 87(2)(b) had been attacking § 87(2)(b) and the other patrons.

At some point later, § 87(2)(b) saw an ambulance arrive. During his time outside, from the officers surrounding § 87(2)(b) to the arrival of the ambulance, § 87(2)(b) did not hear any officer yell or curse at § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) described the officers as very courteous. No officer placed any hands on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) left when the ambulance arrived.

In his CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he was volunteering the day of the incident and was the one who got into the physical altercation with § 87(2)(b) (04 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) had heard that there were people arguing outside of Masbia Soup Kitchen, and when he stepped outside, he saw § 87(2)(b) screaming at the other patrons of the kitchen. § 87(2)(b) saw § 87(2)(b) standing near several boxes of food and asked if they were hers. She denied it, but when § 87(2)(b) began to take them back for distribution, § 87(2)(b) told him not to touch her food. § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) to leave since she had her food. As § 87(2)(b) walked back towards the entrance of Masbia Kitchen, § 87(2)(b) shouted Anti-Semitic comments towards him and the other patrons. § 87(2)(b) returned to § 87(2)(b) and told her again to leave. At this point, § 87(2)(b) struck § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) first pushed § 87(2)(b) away from him, and then hugged her to prevent her from striking him again. § 87(2)(b) bit § 87(2)(b)'s hand and scratched his face, causing them both to lose their balance and fall to the ground. They both sat on the ground. Two older women tried to kick § 87(2)(b) while she was on the ground, but § 87(2)(b) tried to push them away. § 87(2)(b) instructed the women to call 911. One of the women called, while the other told § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) had attacked several of the women in the line as well.

A short time later, two police vehicles arrived with approximately six officers. § 87(2)(b) told the officers that he would release § 87(2)(b) which he subsequently did, and walked with an officer to explain what happened. § 87(2)(b) remained seated on the sidewalk, surrounded by officers. § 87(2)(b) stood with PO Lee approximately five feet from § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) held her phone in front of herself and shouted insults at the officers. § 87(2)(b) also shouted that she had been attacked by everyone, but people in the crowd contested it by shouting back.

§ 87(2)(b) heard the officers telling § 87(2)(b) to remain calm and to keep quiet. He did not hear any officer curse at § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) went inside of Masbia Kitchen for some water and was away from the scene with § 87(2)(b) for about five minutes. When § 87(2)(b) returned outside, he spoke with PO Lee, while § 87(2)(b) was still seated and officers were still standing around her. § 87(2)(b) heard two white officers tell her to, "Put the phone down," and, "Put the phone away." The officers did not tell § 87(2)(b) that she was not allowed to record.

After fifteen minutes two ambulances arrived. § 87(2)(b) did not see § 87(2)(b) enter the ambulance. He did not hear any officer curse at any point during the incident. He did not see any officer place § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs, nor tell her that she was under arrest. Once § 87(2)(b) saw the ambulance and EMTs arrive, he went back inside of the soup kitchen.

EMT § 87(2)(b) was unable to be interviewed by the CCRB in-person, but was able to provide a phone statement (05 Board Review). EMT § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he was the EMT with Forest Hills Volunteer Ambulance Corps who responded to the incident at Masbia Kitchen. When EMT § 87(2)(b) arrived at the scene, he witnessed § 87(2)(b) sitting on the sidewalk surrounded by approximately six officers. § 87(2)(b) had scrapes and minor bleeding on her knuckles.

§ 87(2)(b) was shouting obscenities at everyone present and said that she was going to sue everyone. EMT § 87(2)(b) assessed § 87(2)(b) and found that her behavior was not normal, and her breath smelled of alcohol. However, EMT § 87(2)(b) could not perform a full assessment because § 87(2)(b) would not cooperate with him nor the officers.

One officer told EMT § 87(2)(b) that the ambulance was called due to § 87(2)(b)'s injuries. § 87(2)(b) was not assessed as an EDP, but EMT § 87(2)(b) believed that she could have been if they wanted to because of her behavior. The officers did not use any force on § 87(2)(b). EMT § 87(2)(b) accompanied § 87(2)(b) from the time he arrived at the scene to the hospital intake at the Emergency Room.

In his CCRB interview, PO Myungdeuk Lee stated that he had responded at the scene with his partner, PO Pilkington (06 Board Review). A call had come from over the radio about a physical fight in progress at Masbia Soup Kitchen with an Asian female as the aggressor. When PO Lee arrived at the scene, he saw § 87(2)(b) sitting on the ground of the sidewalk speaking erratically, while a crowd of people were shouting at her. PO Lee and the other officers who responded formed a line around § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) spoke very loudly and rapidly, stating that she had been assaulted by a person who works at the soup kitchen. PO Lee thought that § 87(2)(b) was talking and screaming at the speed of a million miles per hour, but she was not making any other movements. The other patrons of the soup kitchen told the officers that it was § 87(2)(b) who attacked everyone.

PO Lee told § 87(2)(b) that he would investigate further. At this point, PO Lee did not notice any injuries present on § 87(2)(b). PO Lee did see that § 87(2)(b) had a phone, but did not think much of it. PO Lee assumed that § 87(2)(b) was recording and taking pictures.

PO Lee later entered the kitchen to speak with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) provided the same narrative as the crowd of patrons outside: § 87(2)(b) had instigated a fight in the line outside of the kitchen, causing § 87(2)(b) to go outside and try to send § 87(2)(b) away. A physical altercation ensued between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) while witnesses called 911. The manager of the soup kitchen added that § 87(2)(b) always caused a problem when she was present. PO Lee returned to the other officers outside.

At some point, § 87(2)(b)'s father arrived on the scene and told PO Lee that his daughter was crazy. PO Lee and the other officers discussed having § 87(2)(b) removed for a psychiatric evaluation.

PO Lee did not tell § 87(2)(b) to put away her phone, and neither did he hear any other officer tell her to do so. PO Lee did not say nor did he hear any officer say, "Stop taking fucking pictures of me...who the fuck are you? I'm going to fucking arrest you." PO Lee did not use nor hear any other officer use any curse words during the entire incident.

PO Lee did not, nor did he hear any other officer, threaten § 87(2)(b) with arrest. However, PO Lee did note that § 87(2)(b) could have been arrested for the altercation with § 87(2)(b) due to the visible injuries on § 87(2)(b)'s face, but he did not wish to press charges.

In his CCRB interview, PO Alexander Pilkington confirmed that he and PO Lee responded to the incident (07 Board Review). The call came over the radio as a physical fight in progress in which a Chinese female was the aggressor. When PO Pilkington and PO Lee arrived at the scene, § 87(2)(b) was seated on the sidewalk while talking with officers from NCO-David, and several plainclothes officers. § 87(2)(b) appeared erratic: she was upset and screaming indiscriminately about being assaulted.

§ 87(2)(b) held out her phone while stating that she was recording. PO Pilkington did not hear any officers tell § 87(2)(b) to stop recording or to put her phone away. It appeared to PO Pilkington that § 87(2)(b) recorded the entire interaction. No one, at any point, not even PO Pilkington told § 87(2)(b) to put the phone away.

PO Lee went inside of the soup kitchen to speak with the volunteers, while PO Pilkington stayed with § 87(2)(b) outside. At some point, § 87(2)(b)'s father arrived, told the officers that his daughter was crazy, and added that he was not going to deal with this situation and left.

PO Pilkington did not say, "Stop taking fucking pictures or me," nor did he hear any other officer say this. PO Pilkington did not hear nor use any profanity during this incident. PO Pilkington stayed outside with § 87(2)(b) during the entire incident.

PO Pilkington did not threaten § 87(2)(b) with arrest, nor did he discuss arresting § 87(2)(b) with any other officers. However, § 87(2)(b) could have been arrested for assaulting § 87(2)(b) if he had decided to press charges. § 87(2)(b) was never placed in handcuffs during this incident.

PO Pilkington and the other officers called an ambulance to evaluate § 87(2)(b) due to her physical injuries and her possible EDP status. PO Pilkington observed that § 87(2)(b)'s erratic behavior, the story provided by the crowd, § 87(2)(b)'s father's words, and the fact that she had allegedly assaulted a person could classify her as an EDP. PO Pilkington could not remember if § 87(2)(b) specifically asked for an ambulance. However, when the ambulance arrived, § 87(2)(b) stood up of her own accord and walked to the ambulance. PO Pilkington did not recall if an officer escorted § 87(2)(b) to the ambulance, but he did know that no officer accompanied § 87(2)(b) to the hospital. § 87(2)(b) did not object to going to the ambulance. Once she was inside of it, PO Pilkington did not have any further interaction with § 87(2)(b).

Allegation (G) Discourtesy: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO David Pierson spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (H) Abuse of Authority: On January 3, 2019, at 105-47 64th Road, Queens, PO David Pierson threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

In her CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) stated that once the ambulance arrived, she had stood up to walk to the ambulance. As she walked, PO David Pierson grabbed her arm above the elbow in an attempt to walk her to the ambulance. § 87(2)(b) complained that his grip was hurting her, to which PO Pierson responded by saying, “Shut the fuck up. If you don’t comply, I’m going to have to fucking arrest you.” § 87(2)(b) continued to walk to the ambulance and entered into it without a problem.

In his CCRB interview, PO David Pierson stated that he responded to the call as he was working as Neighborhood Community Officer, Sector David (08 Board Review). Once the ambulance arrived, he attempted to guide § 87(2)(b) while walking to the ambulance. PO Pierson did not tell § 87(2)(b) “Shut the fuck up,” nor, “If you don’t comply, I’m going to fucking arrest you.” PO Pierson did not hear any officer use any discourteous language, nor did he use any himself. PO Pierson did not threaten § 87(2)(b) with arrest, however, he noted that she could have been arrested for assault at that time. Once § 87(2)(b) was in the ambulance, PO Pierson did not have any further interaction with her.

As stated previously in the report, EMT § 87(2)(b) accompanied § 87(2)(b) on the walk from the sidewalk to the ambulance. He did not hear any discourteous language used by any officer, nor hear any officer threaten § 87(2)(b) with arrest.

§ 87(2)(g)

Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation G and Allegation H be closed as unfounded.

Allegation (I) Discourtesy: On January 5, 2019, at the 108th Precinct Stationhouse, an officer spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Abuse of Authority: On January 5, 2019, at the 108th Precinct Stationhouse an officer refused to provide his name to § 87(2)(b)

In her CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) stated that on January 5, 2019, she attempted to make a complaint against § 87(2)(b) at a different precinct. She arrived at the 108th Precinct stationhouse at approximately 10:00 p.m. on January 5, 2019. She stated that she waited in the lobby until approximately 2:00 a.m. the next day.

While there, an officer, who § 87(2)(b) described as male, Chinese, tan skinned, with black glasses, in a blue uniform, laughed at § 87(2)(b) when she requested to make a complaint. The officer asked for § 87(2)(b) s ID.

At some point, § 87(2)(b) called the ER to try to have the nurse speak to the officer about § 87(2)(b)'s injuries. When § 87(2)(b) attempted to hand the phone to the officer, he stated, "I don't want to fucking speak with her." § 87(2)(b) sat back down in a waiting chair for several hours. A second officer, described as a black female, told § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) had filed a complaint against her. Toward the end of her time at the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) asked the officer for his name. The officer told her, "I told you to be quiet." At which point § 87(2)(b) left the stationhouse.

In his CCRB interview, Sgt. Amit Dua of the 108th Precinct confirmed that he was the Desk Sergeant for Tour 3 on January 5, 2019 (09 Board Review). Sgt. Dua did not recall anyone attempting to file a complaint during his tour. When shown a picture of § 87(2)(b) he did not recognize her. When given a brief narrative of § 87(2)(b)'s complaint, Sgt. Dua still did not recall anyone attempting to make a complaint. Sgt. Dua stated that the other officer at the desk that day would have been the Telephone Switchboard Operator.

§ 87(2)(g)

Therefore, it is recommended that both Allegation I and Allegation J be closed as officer unidentified.
