22. Plaintiff was sitting in a car, legally parked, with his girlfriend, Patricia Washington.

23. Ms. Washington lived on the same block the car was parked.

24. Plaintiff did not have a valid driver's license, but was also not driving, he was sitting in a parked car, having a conversation with his girlfriend, for approximately an hour.

25. The car's engine was off, and the radio on, with music playing.

26. After approximately one hour of sitting in the parked car, Defendant Officers approached the vehicle.

27. Defendant Officers asked Plaintiff for his license and registration.

28. Plaintiff asked the Officers, "Why do you need my license? I am not driving."

29. Defendants again asked for Plaintiff's license and registration, to which Plaintiff handed over, while sitting inside the car through the open window.

30. Defendants then ordered Plaintiff out of the car.
