VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff TIANNA BRYANT, by her attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On November 24, 2018, at approximately 6:00 P.M., plaintiff Tianna Bryant, while lawfully inside her Aunt's residence, located at 201-18 100th Avenue, in Queens, New York, was subjected to an unlawful search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiffs criminal case was declined to prosecute by the Queens County DA's office. Plaintiff was deprived of her constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff TIANNA BRYANT is a resident of the state of New York.
3. DETECTIVE CHRISTOPHER FOLEY, Shield No. 4683, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. DETECTIVE CHRISTOPHER FOLEY, Shield No. 4683, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the Vice Enforcement Division 2.
5. DETECTIVE CHRISTOPHER FOLEY, Shield No. 4683, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
6. SERGEANT TAVERAS, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. SERGEANT TAVERAS, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the Vice Enforcement Division 2.
8. SERGEANT TAVERAS, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
9. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on April 9, 2018.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On November 24, 2018 at approximately 6:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside her Aunt's residence, located 201-18 100th Avenue, in Queens, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully handcuffed and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause, or any legal justification.

19. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse plaintiff committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

20. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

21. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

22. The defendant police officers transported plaintiff to the 103rd Precinct against her will, where plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted and detained in a holding cell.

23. After about 18 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was unlawfully transported from the 103rd Precinct to Queens County Central Booking and placed in a holding cell.

24. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that plaintiff committed a crime.

25. On November 25, 2018, at approximately 8:00 p.m., after approximately 26 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was released without charges by the Queens County District Attorney Offices.

26. Plaintiff's criminal case for which she was arrested was declined to prosecute by the Queens County District Attorneys Office.

27. Plaintiff was approximately three months pregnant at the time of her unlawful arrest.

28. As a result of the stress of the unlawful arrest and time in police custody, Plaintiff suffered a miscarriage.

29. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, falsely arresting and imprisoning of plaintiff.

30. The unlawful, search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma, including but not limited to the loss of her baby.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

31. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "30" with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

32. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

33. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

34. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

35. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

36. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

37. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "36" with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

38. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

39. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

40. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

41. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

42. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

43. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "42" with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

45. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

46. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked “1” through “49” with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Tianna Bryant. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff’s statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

52. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff’s statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

56. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries and physical injuries including but not limited to a miscarriage.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "56" with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

58. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

59. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

60. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "59" with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

61. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

62. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

63. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

68. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff TIANNA BYRANT, demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

CAITLIN ROBIN, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am a member of the law firm of CAITLIN ROBIN AND ASSOCIATES PLLC, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is because plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
