18. At the referenced place and time, Plaintiff was lawfully operating his motor vehicle, in violation of no laws of the road or otherwise when the defendant officers pulled him over.

19. Upon their request, Plaintiff and his passengers provided their identifications to the officers, knowing that they had done nothing wrong.

20. The defendant officers immediately began to engage in a violent outburst, breaking a window to the vehicle and pulling Plaintiff from the car, despite his willful cooperation to this point.

21. Out of the vehicle, Plaintiff was punched about the face, head, and body by the defendant officers.

22. Plaintiff pleaded with the officers and indicated that he had recently undergone rotator cuff surgery, that they were going to reinjure him.

23. Nevertheless, the defendant officers persisted.

24. Plaintiff was placed in unreasonably tight handcuffs causing him pain and discomfort, which he expressed to the defendant officers without redress.

25. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

26. At no point did the defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff had committed crimes; specifically resisting arrest, obstruction of governmental administration, and criminal possession of a weapon.

32. During his time in custody, Plaintiff was not given food nor water.

33. Plaintiff was thereafter transported to Kings County Central Booking, arraigned, and charged with the crimes he did not commit.

34. Plaintiff was released on his own recognizance but would be forced to travel to New York City to defend himself in this action at multiple court dates.

35. On March 24, 2023, all charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and the records thereof sealed in their entirety.

36. Plaintiff was wrongfully arrested and detained for over 24 hours, he was subjected to grossly excessive force causing new and exacerbated physical injuries.
