VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

Plaintiff, CHESTOM PALLET, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, WARREN CORDERO, ARNOLD TORRES, ALYSHA JOHNSON, DESMOND NICHOLS, JACQUELINE MARKU, SASA MARIC, MATTHEW CANIGLIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of the State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights and the deprivations to his liberties, as enumerated and promulgated by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arose on January 19, 2018, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff inside of 1086 Simpson Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was subsequently transported to the 44th NYPD Precinct, then to Manhattan Detention Center. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was subsequently transported to the 44th precinct, Bronx County Central booking and later to Riker's Island Correctional Facility, Vernon C. Bain Correctional Center ("VCBCC"). As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately two (2) weeks. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to fair trial until the Bronx County District Attorney unconditionally dismissed all charges against Plaintiff on or about January 21, 2020, resulting in the termination of the criminal proceeding in Plaintiff's favor.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff filed his notice of claim with the City of New York in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

5. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of this notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

6. Plaintiff has complied with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law and/or the Public Authorities Law or such request was not timely made.

7. This action and associated claims have been commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days, plus all applicable tolling, after the occurrences upon which they are based.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

FACTUAL CHARGES

26. On, or about, January 19, 2018, at approximately 3:30 pm, inside 1086 Simpson Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Plaintiff was present at Detective Borough Bronx Special Unit located at the aforementioned location after hearing from his mom that the police went to his residence to look for him when Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, approached and sought to arrest him immediately.

27. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOES 1 - 10 asked Plaintiff that if he was involved in a fight and grabbed Mr. Pallet, physically restrained and removed Mr. Pallet by rear handcuffing him in an excessively tight fashion, which resulted substantial pain and physical discomfort to plaintiff's wrists.

28. Plaintiff was then fingerprinted, photographed, searched and placed in a lineup by Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOES 1 - 10 at the Police Unit at the aforementioned location.

29. Plaintiff did not know it was a robbery case until the lineup was finished, which he was not involved at all.

30. Plaintiff tried to ask why Defendants would question him about this robbery case but was ignored by Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOES 1-10.

31. Plaintiff was later transported to Manhattan Detention Center and was remanded into custody at Riker's Island Correctional Facility, VCBCC due to his instant arrest from this incident by Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

32. During the time Plaintiff was wrongfully incarcerated in Riker's Island Correctional Facility, 09-09 Hazen Street, East Elmhurst, County of Queens, State of New York, Plaintiff was assaulted by some of his inmates in the bathroom.

33. New York City Department of Corrections ("NYCDOC") by and through its employees, agents and servants knew that the aforesaid gang member or known problem inmates presented an immediate and imminent threat to other inmates including the Plaintiff.

34. The Correction Officers JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 who were present during the aforesaid assault did not intervene to prevent or mitigate its occurrence.

35. Defendants, including JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, failed to properly supervise and control the actions of inmates who they had prior information had a propensity for attacking other inmates due to gang affiliation, and who further posed a threat to Plaintiff.

36. Defendants, including JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 failed to reasonably supervise and control the actions of inmates whom they knew or reasonably should have known was going to attack Plaintiff.

37. The inmates' attack on Plaintiff resulted in Plaintiff's severe injury to his left leg, face and back.

38. Plaintiff was released on or about February 2, 2018.

39. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to justify their stop, seizure, search, questioning, detention, arrest or subsequent prosecution of Mr. Pallet as defendants did not possess any credible evidence that would lead a reasonable officer to believe that Plaintiff has committed any crime or violation of the law.

40. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in the fabrication of evidence in the form of their observations of Plaintiff's commission of the aforesaid acts.

41. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, forwarded their false claims to prosecutors so that Plaintiff would be arrested, detained, and criminally prosecuted, despite the absence of any probable cause to support their allegations.

42. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence, and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrication of said false allegations against Plaintiff to justify their wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution against Plaintiff, in addition to defendants' destruction, concealment, sabotage or other form of evidence suppression, including defendants' body cam recordings, so that said recordings could not be used to exonerate Plaintiff.

43. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC, CANIGLIA, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, therefore caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, despite the clear lack of any probable cause to believe Mr. Pallet was guilty or that one would succeed.

44. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, intentionally caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution as leverage to obtain information related to actual crimes, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

45. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unjustly and unlawfully targeted Plaintiff for arrest and prosecution, due to impermissible considerations, regarding Plaintiff's color, race, national origin, or ethnicity, or defendants' perceptions thereof, as defendants would not have violated Plaintiff's civil rights, if he were not a Black or African American male and member of protected class, as a racial or ethnic minority.

46. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Mr. Pallet of his liberties and civil rights.

47. Plaintiff was eventually vindicated on January 21, 2020, when the Bronx County District Attorney's Office decided to terminate the criminal proceedings in Plaintiff's favor by moving the court for the unconditional dismissal of all criminal charges then pending against Plaintiff.

48. Mr. Pallet asserts that Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due to their discriminatory prejudices against Black of African American males, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Mr. Pallet, so that he would provide defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota, and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

49. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Mr. Pallet' ethnic or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

50. Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the complained-of stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizure, arrest, and malicious prosecution against Plaintiff, even after they were unable to discover any evidence Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

51. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conducting violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

52. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-20 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with a Docket Number of 2018BX002302. Upon information and belief, the identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-20 Defendants are known only to the Defendants.

53. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

54. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

55. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

56. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

57. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

58. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols.

The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

59. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

61. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

62. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

63. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

64. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN or JANE DOES 1-10.

65. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

66. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

67. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including CORDERO, TORRES, JOHNSON, NICHOLS, MARKU, MARIC and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

68. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
