Plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS, by his attorneys, COHEN & FITCH LLP, complaining of the defendants, respectfully alleges as follows:

FACTS

1. Plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS is a Hispanic male and has been at all relevant times a resident of New York County in the City and State of New York.
2. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
3. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, maintains the New York City Police Department, duly authorized public authorities and/or police departments, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the New York State Criminal Procedure Law, acting under the direction and supervision of the aforementioned municipal corporation, The City of New York.

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants DET. MARK MORAN, Shield No. 05688, P.O. BRIAN GRECO, Shield No. 27356, P.O. DOMINIC MEJIA, Shield No. 25874, P.O. JOHN TRAPINI, Shield No. 02920, and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN DOE” #1-10 were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

5. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or City of New York.

6. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

7. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

The October 4, 2010 Incident

8. On or about October 4, 2010, in the County of New York, City, and State of New York, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS was in the vicinity of West 151st St. and Broadway, New York, NY.

9. At the aforesaid time and place, NYPD officers approached plaintiff's parked vehicle, searched plaintiff and his vehicle, and immediately placed him under arrest with his arms tightly behind his back.

10. At no time on October 4, 2010, did defendants possess probable cause to arrest plaintiff.

11. At no time on October 4, 2010, did defendants possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest plaintiff.

12. Thereafter, plaintiff was transported to a nearby police precinct where he was subjected to an invasive strip search.

13. At no time did defendants possess the particularized suspicion necessary to justify an invasive strip search.

14. Plaintiff was charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third and Fourth Degrees

15. At no time on October 4, 2010, did defendant possess a weapon or behave unlawfully in any way.

16. In connection with plaintiff's arrest, defendants filled out false and/or misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors at the New York County District Attorney's Office.

17. Thereafter, defendants repeatedly gave false and misleading information regarding the facts and circumstances of plaintiff's arrest. Specifically, defendants falsely stated that plaintiff possessed a gun.

18. As a result of his unlawful arrest, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS spent approximately three (3) months in police custody and made multiple court appearances before all charges against him were dismissed in their entirety on April 24, 2013.

19. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS sustained, inter alia, mental anguish, shock, fright, apprehension, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

The December 20, 2012 Incident

20. On or about December 20, 2012, in the County of New York, City, and State of New York, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS was in the vicinity of West 151st St. and Broadway, New York, NY.

21. At the aforesaid time and place, NYPD officers approached plaintiff's parked vehicle, searched plaintiff and his vehicle, and immediately placed him under arrest with his arms tightly behind his back.

22. At no time on December 20, 2012, did defendants possess probable cause to arrest plaintiff.

23. At no time on December 20, 2012, did defendants possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest plaintiff.

24. Thereafter, plaintiff was transported to a nearby police precinct where he was subjected to an invasive strip search.

25. At no time did defendants possess the particularized suspicion necessary to justify an invasive strip search.

26. Plaintiff was charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree.

27. At no time on December 20, 2012, did defendant possess a weapon or behave unlawfully in any way.

28. In connection with plaintiff's arrest, defendants filled out false and/or misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors at the New York County District Attorney's Office.

29. Thereafter, defendants repeatedly gave false and misleading information regarding the facts and circumstances of plaintiff's arrest. Specifically, defendants falsely stated that plaintiff possessed a gravity knife.

30. As a result of his unlawful arrest, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS spent approximately two (2) days in police custody and made multiple court appearances before all charges against him were dismissed in their entirety on January 18, 2013.

31. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff ALBERT SANTOS sustained, inter alia, mental anguish, shock, fright, apprehension, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

57. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the proceeding paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

58. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

59. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department include, but are not limited to, the following unconstitutional practices:

- i. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to inflate the officer's arrest statistics; and
- ii. arresting innocent persons notwithstanding the existence of credible evidence which exonerates the accused of any criminal wrongdoing; and
- iii. fabricating evidence in connection with their prosecution in order to cover up police misconduct.

60. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of the plaintiff.

61. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by the plaintiff as alleged herein.

62. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by the plaintiff as alleged herein.

63. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

64. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers, and were directly responsible for the violation of the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

65. The acts complained of deprived the plaintiff of his right:

- A. Not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
- B. To be free from seizure and arrest not based upon probable cause;
- C. Not to have summary punishment imposed upon him; and
- D. To receive equal protection under the law.
