FACTUAL CHARGES

22. On January 21, 2022, at approximately 8:00 a.m., in the vicinity of inside the residence located at 1621 Carroll Street, County of Kings, City and State of New York, Plaintiffs, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Perry, were illegally stopped, seized and searched, battered and assaulted, detained, and arrested, by Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

23. On said date and time, Plaintiffs were lawfully present and sleeping inside the residence of Mr. Ellington's family with other members of Mr. Ellington's family also present in the vicinity of this complaint-of-incident.

24. On said date and time, Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached and knocked on the door to the aforesaid residence, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

25. Plaintiff, Mr. Ellington, then awoke from sleep and answered the door when Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally entered the aforesaid residence without asking for consent, probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

26. Plaintiff, Mr. Ellington's parole officer was also present in the vicinity of this complained-of incident and explained to him that Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were performing a search of his residence pursuant to the terms of his parole but indicated that this search would be more invasive and would include more officers as opposed to a typical parole visit that Plaintiff was used to.

27. Defendants, including JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 then illegally seized Plaintiff's persons with their outstretched hands grabbing them about their person before affixing parole cuffs to their wrists in an excessively tightened fashion, causing Plaintiff to experience numbness, tingling, and substantial pain in their wrists.

28. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 then illegally stopped, seized, and detained Plaintiff, Mr. Perry who did not live at the aforesaid residence and Mr. Ellington's other family members, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

29. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 then illegally searched the aforesaid residence in a most invasive and destructive manner before allegedly recovering contraband from a safe located thereat.

30. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then falsely accused Plaintiffs, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Perry, of criminal possession of a weapon, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

31. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally approached Plaintiff, Mr. Ellington, and removed parole cuffs from their wrists and affixed their own metal handcuffs to his wrists in an excessively tightened fashion from behind, thereby transferring Mr. Ellington from parole custody to NYPD custody and causing him to suffer further pain to his wrists.

32. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally seized Plaintiff, Mr. Perry's person with their outstretched hands aggressively grabbing him about his person before affixing metal cuffs to his wrists from behind in an excessively tightened fashion.

33. Plaintiffs complained to Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, that the handcuffs were placed on too tight and requested for them to be loosened.

34. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ignored all of Plaintiffs' pleas to loosen the handcuffs, which resulted in Plaintiffs' wrists and hands sustaining loss of feeling, redness, and swelling.

35. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then conducted a search of Plaintiffs' persons without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever.

36. Thereafter, upon information and belief, Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, recovered no contraband.

37. Thereafter, Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiffs, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Perry, in a police vehicle and transported them against their will to the NYPD 71st precinct, where plaintiffs were fingerprinted, strip-searched, photographed, interrogated without presence of counsel, had their DNA sampled, and illegal detained in a dank and dirty cell for approximately twelve (12) hours before being transported against their will to Central Booking where plaintiffs were criminally processed again and illegally detained throughout various dank and dirty cells for approximately twelve (12) hours before being remanded to Rikers Island Correctional Facility with bail after their respective arraignments.

38. Plaintiff, Mr. Perry was thereafter illegally detained at Rikers Island Correctional Facility and forced to endure , inter alia, gratuitous assaults and batteries to their person from other inmates or correction officers, strip-searches with attendant cavity inspections, poor nutritional diet and living conditions, exposure to chemical spray, smoke inhalation, and all the other attendant indignities associated with illegal incarceration over the course of three (3) days before being released from physical custody on or about January 26, 2022.

39. Plaintiff, Mr. Ellington was thereafter illegally detained at Rikers Island Correctional Facility and forced to endure , inter alia, gratuitous assaults and batteries to their person from other inmates or correction officers, strip-searches with attendant cavity inspections, poor nutritional diet and living conditions, exposure to chemical spray, smoke inhalation, and all the other attendant indignities associated with illegal incarceration over the course of twelve (12) months before being released from physical custody on or about December 22, 2022.

40. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 signed the criminal complaint against Plaintiffs, in which he knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against plaintiffs, namely that Plaintiffs committed the offense of criminal possession of a weapon.

41. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest Plaintiffs, because Defendants never observed Plaintiffs commit any crime or violation of the law.

42. Due to the lack of probable cause for the seizure of Plaintiffs' persons, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of Assault and Battery by Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

43. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly, maliciously, and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which Defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiffs before forwarding to prosecutors.

44. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, and a gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith.

45. Plaintiff asserts that Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs with the full knowledge that they had committed no crimes or violations of the law.

46. Plaintiffs, therefore, assert that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant their criminal prosecution, at any point, they were denied their rights to a fair trial and due process and were maliciously prosecuted from the moment of their arraignments, until the criminal proceedings were irrefutably terminated in favor of Plaintiffs, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Perry when all adverse charges under Kings County Criminal Court Docket No. IND-70454-22 and Kings County Criminal Court Arrest No. K22602813N, respectively, were outright dismissed and sealed on the merits on, or about December 16, 2022 and on, or about September 1, 2022 pursuant to § 160.50 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law.

47. As a result, Plaintiff, Mr. Perry was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN

OR JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of approximately five (5) days, until their release from physical custody on or about January 26, 2022.

48. As a result, Plaintiff, Mr. Ellington was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of approximately twelve (12) months, until their release from physical custody on or about December 22, 2022.

49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were involved in the decision to stop, seize, and arrest Plaintiffs without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

50. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiffs to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiffs to excessive force.

51. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiffs, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

52. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against plaintiff in retaliation for plaintiffs' exertions of their constitutional right to freely express their opinion and inquiries, namely plaintiffs' displeasure with the manner in which defendants addressed them, their use of a personal cell phone, and their polite request for an explanation of their conduct.

53. As a result, Plaintiffs' mental health issues were aggravated and they developed a severe fear of police officers, which prevented them from venturing from their house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled their desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

54. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of plaintiffs due to solely to their statuses as African Americans, Black, Hispanic, or Latino individuals.

55. Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiffs by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

56. Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants, including ARNONE, GONZALEZ, TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated plaintiffs' civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

57. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

58. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

59. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain system in throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

60. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled “Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn’t Involved,” describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

61. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

62. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

63. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

64. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

65. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

66. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

67. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

68. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiffs’ arrests without probable cause.

69. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

70. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiffs' underlying arrests, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiffs' civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

71. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

72. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

73. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including NUZIO and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

74. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

75. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

76. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including NUZIO and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiffs' civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

77. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiffs were caused to suffer the loss of their liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
