21. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 illegally interrogated Mr. Cannon in violation of his rights pursuant to Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966)

23. Plaintiff repeatedly requested that Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, loosen the handcuffs, because they were causing him substantial pain and discomfort due to their excessive tightness.
24. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 ignored all of Plaintiff's pleas to loosen the handcuffs, and Defendants sadistically and intentionally squeezed the handcuffs with Plaintiff's wrists within in order to inflict wanton and unnecessary pain to Plaintiff. This resulted in Mr. Cannon's wrists sustaining contusions, swelling, and loss of feeling.
25. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, interrogated Mr. Cannon in further violation of his rights pursuant to Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966)

31. Defendants stated that they would seize their physical assaults only if Mr. Cannon solicited incriminating statements.

36. Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arresting officers, signed the criminal court complaint, swearing and attesting the observations of defendants, despite said defendants being fully aware that said observations were complete fabrications, that Plaintiff was innocent of the crimes alleged within the complaint, and there existed no probable cause to arrest him.
37. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, was supervising sergeant assigned to Plaintiff's arrest and directed, approved or authorized Plaintiff's arrest, despite being fully aware that Plaintiff had not committed any crimes or violations of the law and that there was no probable cause to arrest him.
38. As a result of defendants' knowingly and intentionally providing false statements and allegations, Plaintiff was falsely charged under docket number CR:019089-19KN
39. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 signed a supporting deposition (or corroborating affidavit) falsely swearing and alleging that they recovered narcotics from Mr. Cannon, and that they witnessed Mr. Cannon selling Narcotics.
40. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 signed a supporting deposition (or corroborating affidavit) falsely swearing and alleging that he observed PLAINTIFF was in possession of a contraband.
41. Said acts caused Plaintiff's false imprisonment for approximately two (2) days.
42. Defendants intentionally provided said false information to the District Attorney's Office, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Plaintiff namely that Plaintiff was selling narcotics.

43. At no point did Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ever observe Plaintiff commit any crime or offense.
44. Upon information and belief, at no point did Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ever recover narcotics from Plaintiff.
45. At no point were the defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ever told by any witnesses that Plaintiff committed any crime or violation of the law.
46. The defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, did not have probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or stop Mr. Cannon, as he was merely a lawful pedestrian, on his way home from the gym.
47. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as they each were fully aware that Plaintiff never possessed a narcotics or had any knowledge or information about narcotics.
48. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff maliciously prosecuted.

49. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrications of the false accounts.
50. During all of the events described, the Defendants, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.
51. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
52. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE, attempted to coerce a false confession from Mr. Cannon through Defendant's brutal assaults, and thereby violated Mr. Cannon's due process rights pursuant to Brown v. Mississippi 297 US 278 (1936)
53. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON CANNON, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10,, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.
54. Defendant City has engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of stopping vehicles occupied by members of protected classes, especially African- Americans, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion to do so and then using excessive force in the process of unlawfully arresting said individuals.

55. Defendant City has also engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of concealing their unlawful arrests by fabricating false accounts that African- American males were observed committing criminal acts, when no such acts were ever committed.
56. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD.
57. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON CANNON, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, assaulted, battered and maliciously prosecuted him, due solely to their racial discriminatory prejudices against African- Americans, their desire to meet an arrest quota and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.
58. Plaintiff further asserts that Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON CANNON and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, acted in such a sadistic and reprehensible manner, due to their assumption that defendants' version of events would undoubtedly and unduly be credited over Plaintiff's, solely because Plaintiff is a young black male.
59. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, assaulted, battered and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, not because of any probable cause to believe Plaintiff had committed any crimes, violations of the law, but because of their pernicious belief that individuals like the Plaintiff must possess and sell narcotics.

60. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, discriminated against Plaintiff by arresting, assaulting, battering, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, solely due to defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's race, ethnicity, national origin, immigration status, religion, gender or age.
61. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the unlawful stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizure, arrest, and malicious prosecution against Plaintiff.
62. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to stop, search and arrest Plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that the unlawful acts committed by Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, against Plaintiff, were discriminatorily motivated and enacted upon.
63. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, subjected plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants failed to stop, question, arrest or maliciously prosecute other pedestrians who were not members of a protected class and who were traveling at the same time and on the same sidewalk as plaintiff.
64. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, would not have arrested plaintiff and fabricated false accounts, if plaintiff was not a young African- American male.

65. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
66. Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 signed a criminal complaint against Plaintiff, in which he knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against Plaintiff, namely that Plaintiff sold narcotics.
67. Plaintiff was then falsely charged with criminal acts or conduct.
68. Plaintiff's charges were dismissed on or about August 5, 2019 and November 26, 2019, and sealed pursuant to CPL 160.50 which constituted a termination favorable to the accused.
69. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

70. Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against Plaintiff in retaliation for Plaintiff's exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely Plaintiff's displeasure with the manner in which Defendants refused to allow Plaintiff to exercise his constitutional rights.

71. As a result, Plaintiff is not secure of his constitutional rights, which prevented him from venturing from his house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled his desire and ability to communicate with law enforcement and police officers.

72. Defendants, including, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

73. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

74. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

75. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

76. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

77. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemin throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.
78. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.
79. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop

Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

80. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

81. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

82. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.”

Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

83. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

84. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi)

“Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

85. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.
86. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.
87. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.
88. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to Plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

89. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

90. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

91. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

92. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including CITY OF NEW YORK, TRISTON TRUNK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

93. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
