INDEX NO.:

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff GUY MCEACHIN, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the laws of the State of New York. On November 13, 2013, at approximately 4:30 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully in standing in front of 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Far Rockaway, New York 11691 when the individually named New York City police officer defendants, unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, falsely imprisoned, unlawfully seized, and falsely arrested plaintiff. Thereafter, the officers maliciously prosecuted plaintiff and denied plaintiff a right to a fair trial by initiating a prosecution against him, without probable cause by falsifying evidence, providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to the DA's Office and by signing a Criminal Court complaint which contained false information about plaintiff. Those officers that did not arrest plaintiff are liable for failing to intervene and stop the unlawful conduct against claimant that was being committed by their fellow officers. All criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about May 29, 2015. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted, and denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Guy McEachin is a resident of the state of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER ANDRE FIGUEIREDO, Tax No. 936595, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER ANDRE FIGUEIREDO, Tax No. 936595, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 101st precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER ANDRE FIGUEIREDO, Tax No. 936595 is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. POLICE OFFICER JOHN HANSEN, Tax No. 943348, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. POLICE OFFICER JOHN HANSEN, Tax No. 943348, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 101st precinct.

8. POLICE OFFICER JOHN HANSEN, Tax No. 943348 is being sued in her individual and official capacity.

9. SERGEANT BRIAN HILLMANN, Tax No. 932792, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

10. SERGEANT BRIAN HILLMANN, Tax No. 932792, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 101st precinct.

11. SERGEANT BRIAN HILLMANN, Tax No. 932792 is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

12. POLICE OFFICER ANTHONY ANDINO, Tax No. 942953, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

13. POLICE OFFICER ANTHONY ANDINO, Tax No. 942953, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 101st precinct.

14. POLICE OFFICER ANTHONY ANDINO, Tax No. 942953 is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

15. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

16. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

17. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

18. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

19. On November 13, 2013, at approximately 4:30 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully in front of 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Far Rockaway, New York, when the individually named New York City police officer defendants proceeded to unlawfully stop, question, frisk, seize and detain plaintiff without his consent, and without reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or any legal justification.

20. At no time prior to stopping plaintiff did the defendant police officers have any objective factual basis to believe plaintiff had committed a crime, was about to commit a crime, or was in the process of committing a crime.

21. At no time was plaintiff in possession of any illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband of any kind on November 13, 2016, nor did the defendant police officers have an objective reason to believe plaintiff possessed illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband of any kind.

22. Nevertheless, the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, and handcuffed plaintiff and falsely arrested him without legal justification or probable cause.

23. The individually named police officers unlawfully searched plaintiff's person without probable cause or any legal justification and did not locate any illegal drugs, weapons or contraband as a result of the search.

24. Plaintiff was unlawfully transported to the 101st precinct by the defendant police officers.

25. Upon arrival at 101st precinct, the defendant police officers photographed, fingerprinted and placed plaintiff in a holding cell.

26. At no time did plaintiff resist being fingerprinted or photographed.

27. Thereafter, the defendant police officers unlawfully conducted a strip search of plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

28. Specifically, plaintiff was forced to take off all of his clothes and shake each piece of clothing out.

29. Plaintiff was then ordered to turn around, and with his back facing the defendant police officers, plaintiff was forced to bend over and spread his buttocks.

30. At no time did the defendant police officers recover any drugs, contraband or other illegal paraphernalia from plaintiff.

31. On or about November 14, 2013, plaintiff was transported from the 101st precinct to Queens Central Booking.

32. Based upon the false, misleading, and incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers and sworn to by defendant police officer Andre Figueiredo in the criminal court complaint, defendants maliciously initiated a prosecution against plaintiff without probable cause, and as a result plaintiff was falsely charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance.

33. Specifically, defendant police officer Figueiredo signed a criminal court complaint falsely stating that he observed plaintiff to be in possession on a controlled substance when in fact it he did not actually observe plaintiff to be in possession of a controlled substance.

34. Further, defendant police officer Figueiredo falsely stated to the Manhattan District Attorney's Office that plaintiff was in possession of said controlled substance.

35. On or about November 14, 2013, after approximately 24 hours in custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Queens Criminal Court and bail was set.

36. Plaintiff was unable to post bail and therefore was remanded to the custody of the Department of Correction.

37. On or about November 13, 2013, plaintiff was transported to Riker's Island.

38. Thereafter, the defendant police officers provided false information and testimony to the Assistant District Attorney and the Grand Jury.

39. On or about November 21, 2013, plaintiff was indicted by a grand jury based upon the fabricated testimony and/or false information documented in reports and the paperwork of the defendant police officers.

40. The presumption of probable cause created by the Grand Jury indictment is rebuttable in this case because the indictment was based upon false statements told to the grand jury and/or false information documented in reports and paperwork by the defendant police officers.

41. Thereafter, on or about March 21, 2014, after approximately 4 months incarcerated at Riker's Island, plaintiff was able to post bail and was released from custody.

42. The Court held a suppression hearing in the criminal case and on April 7, 2015, Judicial Hearing Officer Arthur J. Cooperman held that defendant Figueiredo fabricated his paperwork and testimony regarding his alleged observations of plaintiff in possession of a controlled substance.

43. Specifically, Judge Cooperman held that based upon defendant police officer Figueiredo's sworn testimony regarding his physical location when he initially observed plaintiff, it would have been impossible for defendant police officer Figueiredo to have observed plaintiff in possession of a controlled substance prior to him approaching plaintiff on November 13, 2013.

44. As such, Judge Cooperman held that defendant Figueiredo had no probable cause to stop, question, frisk, search and arrest plaintiff and granted plaintiff's motion to suppress all physical evidence allegedly recovered in the case.

45. Finally, on May 29, 2015, after being forced to appear in Court on approximately 24 times over 20 months, all charges against plaintiff were dismissed.

46. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and denial of fair trial and due process rights to plaintiff.

47. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, denial of due process, denial of a fair trial, against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

48. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 47 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

49. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, subjected to denial of his due process rights and denied the right to a fair trial without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure and denial of due process under the Fourth and Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

56. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 55 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

57. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

58. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching, plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

64. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's, pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

65. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

66. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

69. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

70. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 69 as if fully set forth herein.

71. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the United States Constitution, State of New York and New York State common law.

72. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

73. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

74. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

75. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

78. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 through 77 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

79. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

80. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

81. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

82. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Guy McEachin and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

83. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Guy McEachin, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

85. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

86. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 85 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

87. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

88. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

89. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

90. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

91. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Strip Search

92. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 91 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

93. Plaintiff was searched by defendants without an individualized reasonable suspicion that plaintiff was concealing weapons or other contraband based on a crime charged, the particular characteristics of the arrestee, and/or the circumstances of the arrest.

94. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's Constitutional rights were deprived and he sustained great emotional injuries.

95. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution and the State of New York.

96. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

97. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Guy McEachin demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
