COMPLAINT

Jury Trial Demanded

Index No.

BASIS FOR VENUE:

CPLR § 504(3)

Plaintiff TANESIA GOLDING, by her attorneys, COHEN & FITCH LLP, complaining of the defendants, respectfully alleges as follows:

FACTS

1. Plaintiff TANESIA GOLDING is an African-American female and has been at all relevant times a resident of Bronx County in the City and State of New York.
2. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
3. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, maintains the New York City Police Department, duly authorized public authorities and/or police departments, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the New York State Criminal Procedure Law, acting under the direction and supervision of the aforementioned municipal corporation, The City of New York.

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants POLICE OFFICERS "JOHN DOE" #1-10 were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

5. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or City of New York.

6. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

7. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

8. On or about April 5, 2013, in the County of Bronx, City, and State of New York, plaintiff TANESIA GOLDING was inside of the East 233rd Street Right Spot Deli and Grocery (hereinafter, "Right Spot Deli") located at 979 E. 233rd St., Bronx, NY.

9. At the aforesaid time and place, NYPD officers entered the Right Spot Deli and asked plaintiff to step out of her office.

10. Plaintiff, an employee of Right Spot Deli, was in the process of getting a manager to speak with these NYPD officers, when said officers broke down her office door, accosted her, searched her without a female officer present, and then immediately placed her under arrest with her arms tightly behind his back.

11. At no time on April 5, 2013, did defendants possess probable cause to arrest plaintiff.

12. At no time on April 5, 2013, did defendants possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest plaintiff.

13. Thereafter, plaintiff, who was four (4) months pregnant, was transported to a nearby police precinct where she was subjected to an invasive strip search.

14. At no time did defendants possess the particularized suspicion necessary to justify an invasive strip search.

15. Plaintiff was charged with Criminal Sale of Marijuana in the Fourth Degree, Unlawfully Dealing with a Child in the First Degree, Criminal Possession of Marijuana in the Fifth Degree, and several violations of the Alcohol and Beverage Control law.

16. At no time on April 5, 2013, did defendant possess marijuana, commit any of the aforementioned crimes or offenses, or behave unlawfully in any way.

17. In connection with plaintiff's arrest, defendants filled out false and/or misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors at the New York County District Attorney's Office. Thereafter, defendants repeatedly gave false and misleading information regarding the facts and circumstances of plaintiff's arrest. Specifically, defendants falsely stated that plaintiff sold one 24 once Coors Light Beer to a person who was less than twenty-one (21) years old and did not ask for said person to verify his age or for any form of identification. In addition, defendants falsely stated that plaintiff had in her custody and control one opened large bottle of Hennessy, two opened large bottles of vodka, and multiple empty cups and that plaintiff without possessing a New York State Liquor License for Liquor and that plaintiff had in her custody and control twenty Ziplock bags containing marijuana.

18. As a result of his unlawful arrest, plaintiff TANESIA GOLDING spent approximately three (3) days in police custody and made multiple court appearances before all charges against her were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal on September 29, 2014.

19. In addition, at the time of her arrest, plaintiff was four (4) months pregnant. As such, while plaintiff was in custody she suffered significant stress and depression. This caused her to experience excruciating back pain and cramps and to lose approximately six (6) pounds, which put her unborn child at risk. Thereafter, immediately following her release from custody, plaintiff went directly to the hospital for treatment.

20. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff TANESIA GOLDING sustained, inter alia, mental anguish, shock, fright, apprehension, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of her constitutional rights.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DEPRIVATION OF FEDERAL RIGHTS UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

21. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the proceeding paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

22. All of the aforementioned acts of defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.

23. All of the aforementioned acts deprived plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

24. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

25. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and the rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

26. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FALSE ARREST UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

27. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the proceeding paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

28. As a result of the aforesaid conduct by defendants, plaintiff was subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest by the defendants, taken into custody, and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained, and confined, without any probable cause, privilege or consent.

29. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear for her safety, and she was humiliated and subjected to handcuffing and other physical restraints, without probable cause.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DENIAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO FAIR TRIAL
UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

30. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the proceeding paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

31. Defendants created false evidence against plaintiff.

32. Defendants forwarded false evidence and false information to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's office.

33. Defendants misled the prosecutors by creating false evidence against plaintiff and thereafter providing false testimony throughout the criminal proceedings.

34. In creating false evidence against plaintiff, in forwarding false evidence and information to prosecutors, and in providing false and misleading sworn statements, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the Sixth Amendment and the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

35. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear for her safety, and she was humiliated and subjected to handcuffing and other physical restraints without probable cause.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

36. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the proceeding paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

37. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

38. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department include, but are not limited to, the following unconstitutional practices:

- i. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to inflate the officer's arrest statistics; and
- ii. arresting innocent persons notwithstanding the existence of credible evidence which exonerates the accused of any criminal wrongdoing; and
- iii. fabricating evidence in connection with their prosecution in order to cover up police misconduct.

39. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of the plaintiff.

40. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by the plaintiff as alleged herein.

41. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by the plaintiff as alleged herein.

42. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

43. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers, and were directly responsible for the violation of the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

44. The acts complained of deprived the plaintiff of his right:

- A. Not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
- B. To be free from seizure and arrest not based upon probable cause;
- C. Not to have summary punishment imposed upon him; and
- D. To receive equal protection under the law.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against defendants as follows:

- i. an order awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- ii. an order awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- iii. reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and
- iv. directing such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper, together with attorneys' fees, interest, costs and disbursements of this action.
