Plaintiff, by her attorneys, LAW OFFICES OF MILLER & MILLER, as and for their Verified Complaint, respectfully alleges, upon information and belief:

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(FALSE ARREST)

1. The Plaintiff RITCHNEL BEAUBRUN is a resident of the County of Kings, in the State of New York.
2. At all times herein mentioned, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK (hereinafter the "CITY"), was and still is a municipal corporation, created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
3. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant CITY operated, maintained, managed, and controlled the New York City Police Department.
4. That the New York City Police Department is an agency, instrumentality, and/or department of defendant CITY, and/or defendant CITY derived benefit from the activities of the New York City Police Department.

5. At all times herein mentioned the defendant, PO JUSTIN VAZQUEZ, SH. No. 25942, was employed by the New York City Police Department as a police officer.

6. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant, PO JUSTIN VAZQUEZ, SH. No. 25942, was acting within the scope of his employment as Police Office employed by the New York City Police Department.

7. That at all timed mentioned herein, defendant, PO JUSTIN VAZQUEZ, SH. No. 25942, was acting under color of law and authority as a Police Officer employed by the New York City Police Department.

8. At all times herein mentioned the defendant, PO TODD HANSEN, SH. No. 13329, was employed by the New York City Police Department as a police officer.

9. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant, PO TODD HANSEN, SH. No. 13329, was acting within the scope of his employment as Police Office employed by the New York City Police Department.

10. That at all timed mentioned herein, defendant, PO TODD HANSEN, SH. No. 13329, was acting under color of law and authority as a Police Officer employed by the New York City Police Department.

11. That the District Attorney is a policymaker of and for the CITY regarding the management, supervision, and training of Assistant District Attorneys in the Office of the District Attorney for the County of New York, State of New York.

12. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of New York.

13. That said policy, practices, and/or customs, include stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the coercion and manipulation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, and a failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

14. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individual personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including individual police officers, detectives, investigators, and Asst. District Attorneys, with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead ignored, condoned and/or sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated.

15. That the Plaintiff has served notice, in accordance with applicable statutes, on the Defendants and that at least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

16. That the Plaintiff has fully complied with defendants demand for examination or that said demand has been otherwise waived.

17. That their action is being commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

18. On January 30, 2020, the Defendants, their agents servants and employees, including but not limited to POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, did unlawfully stop, assault, frisk, handcuff, detain, arrest and imprison the Plaintiff.

19. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was malicious, unlawful and not based upon a warrant, probable cause, and/or any other justification, and was therefore a false arrest and imprisonment.

20. That the Defendants did act individually and together to arrest, imprison and prosecute the Plaintiff to facilitate the concealment of acts committed by the Defendants which violated the civil rights of the Plaintiff.

21. That defendant CITY, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, acted in bad faith and without probable cause in committing the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment of the Plaintiff.

22. On information and belief, that the conduct of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, including POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did deviate so egregiously from acceptable Police Department activity as to demonstrate an intentional or reckless disregard for proper Police Department procedure.

23. On information and belief, the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, including defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did fail to make further inquiry into the allegations set forth against the Plaintiff although a reasonable person would have done so and thereby established a lack of probable cause against the Plaintiff.

24. At the time of their unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act.

25. At the time of the Plaintiff's unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the defendants knew or should have known, through the exercise of proper procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned arrest and imprisonment was false and without probable cause.

26. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was made with knowledge of and/or negligent and/or reckless disregard of the material falseness of the criminal complaint(s).

27. The aforesaid false arrest and imprisonment caused Plaintiff to suffer severe physical injuries, emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages, legal expenses, and damage to their reputation.

28. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff, and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

29. Due to defendants' negligence, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

30. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

31. The Defendants intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, negligently and with malice caused the commencement of a criminal prosecution against the Plaintiff in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of Kings, upon the filing of an accusatory instrument without probable cause, under Docket Number CR-002730-20KN. Said malicious prosecution continued until June 8, 2020, when it was dismissed.

32. In commencing and continuing the said malicious prosecution, defendants caused the Plaintiff to be falsely charged with acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

33. The Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act(s).

34. The Plaintiff had not given defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, probable cause to believe that he had committed the falsely charged illegal acts.

35. The Defendants knew, or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care and proper police department procedure, that the said investigation into this matter was flawed and incomplete.

36. That the Defendants maliciously, knowingly, and intentionally caused and were otherwise deliberately indifferent to, the presentation of materially false testimony and evidence which resulted in the criminal complaint(s) being filed against the Plaintiff.

37. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully accused the Plaintiff of having committed acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

38. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully continued to prosecute the Plaintiff for alleged violations of the Penal Law of the State of New York, even though the defendants knew or should have known of facts and circumstances that would have lead a reasonable person to conclude that the criminal complaint, upon which said criminal prosecution was based, contained material falsehoods and was otherwise improper, and that the continued prosecution of the Plaintiff was, therefore, improper under the circumstances.

39. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate inculpatory evidence and withhold exculpatory evidence and did manipulate, intimidate, and/or coerce witnesses to improperly implicate the Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action.

40. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate official records and documents, and did wrongfully file the same to cause, and in support of, the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

41. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of New York, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the withholding of exculpatory evidence by ADAs and employees and members of the New York City Police Department, stopping, frisking, handcuffing and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, the manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses and the countenance of acts of misbehavior by employees and members of the New York City Police Department and the Office of District Attorney, New York County, including the violation of the civil rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated, and the failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

42. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of New York, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the filing of knowingly false and/or fabricated criminal complaints by ADAs and/or employees and members of the New York City Police Department, to protect employees and members of the New York City Police Department who have engaged in acts amounting to excessive force, assault and battery of civilians, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background.

43. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise their personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated.

44. As a result of the malicious prosecution, the Plaintiff was caused to suffer and continue to suffer severe emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of wages, legal expenses and damage to their reputations.

45. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

46. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(INFLECTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

47. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

48. The aforementioned actions of defendants were so outrageous, malicious and shocking that it exceeded all reasonable bounds of decency tolerated by the average member of the community.

49. Defendants acted with the desire and intent to cause Plaintiff emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

50. Defendants intentionally, knowingly, wilfully, recklessly, negligently and wrongfully caused Plaintiffs emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

51. Defendants acted with utter disregard of the consequences of their actions.

52. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the infliction of emotional distress.

53. The Defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

54. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(NEGLIGENCE)

55. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

56. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently trained or failed to train its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen.

57. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants, or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently supervised or failed to supervise its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen.

58. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants, or employees, including defendants POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently disciplined or failed to discipline its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen.

59. Defendant CITY was negligent in its hiring of its agents, servants and/or employees, especially including defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, who defendant CITY knew, or in the course of adequate and proper investigation should have reasonably known, were unfit to hold their positions.

60. Defendant CITY was negligent in its retention of its agents, servants and/or employees, especially including defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, who defendant CITY knew, or in the course of adequate and proper investigation should have reasonably known, were unfit to hold their positions in that they refused or failed to perform within the statutory and constitutional limits of their authority and misused and abused their positions.

61. That the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees were otherwise, and in general, careless, reckless and negligent under the circumstances existing as previously described.

62. All of the causes of action of their complaint are specifically excepted under C.P.L.R. § 1602.

63. As a result of the negligence of defendants CITY, and POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, without any negligence on the part of Plaintiff, Plaintiff was caused to suffer severe and permanent personal injuries, pain and suffering, emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, and loss of wages, legal expenses, and damage to his reputation.

64. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

65. Due to defendants' negligence, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(ASSAULT/BATTERY/NEGLIGENT CONTACT)

66. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

67. That the acts of Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, along with those acts of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff caused the Plaintiff to apprehend and/or fear unfriendly contact.

68. That on or about January 30, 2020, Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, did without cause or justification, utilize acts amounting to an assault and battery of the Plaintiff, in violation of the Plaintiff's civil rights.

69. That on or about January 30, 2020, Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, did without cause or justification, forcibly stop, frisk, handcuff and detain the Plaintiff, and during said stop, frisk, handcuffing and detention, did utilize acts amounting to excessive force, in violation of the Plaintiff's civil rights.

70. A reasonable person in the same circumstances as the Plaintiff, would have apprehended and/or feared unfriendly contact.

71. Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff assaulted the Plaintiff.

72. Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen was in the employ of the defendants, when Plaintiff was assaulted.

73. The assault and battery, as aforesaid, were within the scope of Defendant's, POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, employment.

74. The defendants assaulted and battered the Plaintiff.

75. Defendant's POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen acts, along with those acts of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff, were intended to make contact with the Plaintiff.

76. Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff made contact with the Plaintiff.

77. Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff battered Plaintiff.

78. The battery as aforesaid, was within the scope of Defendant's, POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen, employment.

79. The defendants battered the Plaintiff.

80. At all times herein mentioned, the person of Defendant POs Justin Vazquez and Todd Hansen and that of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff, negligently, carelessly and recklessly came into harmful contact with the person of the Plaintiff.

81. The Plaintiff was thereby caused to be injured on or about January 30, 2020.

82. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

83. Due to defendants' actions, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS)

84. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

85. The actions of defendants heretofore described resulting from arrest, detention, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and prosecution of the Plaintiff, constitute an unlawful arrest, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and malicious prosecution which deprived the Plaintiffs of rights, privileges, and immunities as guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Amendments One, Four, Five, and Fourteen, the New York State Constitution, the Civil Rights Acts, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988 and the complained of conduct was either the result of an official policy or unofficial custom, including but not limited to, policies and customs concerning the assault, stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing and the hiring, training, supervision, retention and discipline of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, and those involving the arrest, detention and prosecution of individuals, including and especially, those persons who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent.

86. That the Defendants established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating the use by the New York City Police Department of excessive force and acts of misconduct against civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

87. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of New York, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the filing of knowingly false and/or fabricated criminal complaints by ADAs and/or employees and members of the New York City Police Department, to protect employees and members of the New York City Police Department who have engaged in acts amounting to excessive force, assault and battery of civilians, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background.

88. That the Defendants established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating ADA's and members of the New York City Police Department in their withholding of exculpatory evidence and their countenance of the use by the New York City Police Department of fabricated evidence and criminal complaints and the use of excessive force and acts of misconduct against civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

89. That the Defendants were deliberately indifferent to the use of improper procedures in the detention and arrest of civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating the use of said improper procedures by ADAs and the New York City Police Department, including but not limited to the assault, stopping, frisking, detention and arrest of persons without probable cause, the use of excessive force, the fabrication of criminal complaints and evidence, the withholding of exculpatory evidence and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

90. The defendants have deprived the Plaintiff of her liberty in violation of their civil and constitutional rights as set forth in the United States Constitution, 42 U.S. C. § 1983 and the Constitution of the State of New York.

91. The defendants actions were undertaken under color of law and would not have existed but for said defendants' use of their official power.

92. That the defendants conspired with each other and acted in concert to discriminate against and deprive the Plaintiffs of their Constitutional and Civil rights.

93. The supervisors and policy making officers of defendant CITY and its New York City Police Department, and the Office of the District Attorney, as a matter of policy, are deliberately indifferent to said practices and have failed to take steps to terminate the herein above detailed practices and have failed to discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individuals engaged in such practices.

94. The defendant CITY has failed to properly or effectively train its agents, servants and/or employees, with regard to proper constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and such failure continues to this day.

95. The defendant CITY has sanctioned the policy and practices heretofore described through its deliberate indifference to the effect of such policy and practices upon the constitutional rights of the Plaintiff and others similarly situated.

96. That the defendants' motivations were in contravention of the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of New York.

97. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff has been damaged and suffered serious and severe permanent physical injuries, emotional distress and emotional harm as a result of these deprivations of constitutional and civil rights.

98. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

99. Due to defendants' actions, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(ATTORNEYS' FEES)

100. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

101. The actions of defendants heretofore described resulting from the arrest, detention, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and prosecution of the Plaintiff, constitute an unlawful arrest, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and malicious prosecution which deprived the Plaintiffs of rights, privileges, and immunities as guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Amendments One, Four, Five, and Fourteen, the New York State Constitution, the Civil Rights Acts, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988 and the complained of conduct was either the result of an official policy or unofficial custom, including but not limited to, policies and customs concerning the stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing and the hiring, training, supervision, retention and discipline of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, and those involving the arrest, detention and prosecution of individuals, including and especially, those persons who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent.

102. That the Plaintiff has incurred significant attorneys' fees in the prosecution of the above referenced claims against the defendants. That in the event that the Plaintiff is successful in the prosecution of the aforesaid claim(s), Plaintiff shall be prevailing parties within the meaning of 42 USC § 1988 and entitled to the recovery of said attorneys fees from the defendants.

103. As a result, the defendants became liable to the Plaintiff in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request judgment against the defendants in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction, together with the costs and disbursements of their action.
